

NEWCOMERS TO THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE IN 2005

DEPUTY
JEREMY JONES

Jeremy joined the Sheriff's office shortly after the end of the year, in 2005.

Jeremy became a certified law enforcement officer in December of 2004, then worked as Chief in Clarks Nebraska until accepting a position with us.

Previous to his law enforcement experience, he served in the Army for six years. He served a tour of duty as airport security after 9-11. He then was deployed to Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom. He recently separated from the Army, while holding the rank of Sergeant.

Jeremy is married to Mary, and has two children, daughter Kaylee, age 4 and son Justice, age 1.

CHRISTIE OSENTOWSKI

Christi started working for the Sheriff's office on December 5th, 2005. She is an Ord High School graduate.

Previous to her hiring, Christi worked at Alltel as a customer care liaison, and also held several other positions.

Christi is married to Bruce, who is the State manager for Performance Matters Associates, and also sells supplemental insurance policies. They have two daughters, Jacqui who is a senior at Northwest High and Cierra who is a 3rd grader at Engleman Elementary.

Jason Smith

Jason started with the Sheriff's office on 6-14-2005.

Previous to his accepting the position, Jason worked for the Merrick County Sheriff's office and had attained the rank of Sergeant.

Just previous to his starting, Jason married Angela, who is attending college at UNK, majoring in Criminal Justice. Angela is hoping to work for Probation after Graduation.

He is a graduate of Giltner High School and has a degree in Biology from the University of Nebraska in Kearney.